

Following the men's exhibition, the women took to the court with warm-up exercises. The Japanese with their drills and precise organization amazed a near capacity crowd both nights. They did things with a volleyball that VOIT couldn't do! The Hawaiian team looked pretty good considering we had had only a month and a half of training. Our two Olympic players, Fanny Hopeau and Sharon Peterson, played as if it were Mexico City all over again. The rest of our players: Gail O'Rourke, Cinthia Kalama, Gail Zimmermann, Joclyn Akeo, Virginia Vandling, Millie Kaawa and Stevie Whalen, also played very well.

Against the Japanese, a team's desire to "play to win" is slightly altered to "play to score." We successfully did this by getting on the scoreboard both nights. Sunday night's scores were 15-4, 15-2 and Monday night's scores were 15-2, 15-5. Defeated we were, but coach Harry Kealoha and manager Calvin McGregor were pleased with our performance.

THE DUKE MEET

The Outrigger will have three members entered in the Annual Duke Kahanamoku Surf Classic this year. This meet is by invitation only and there are 24 surfers selected from all over the world. We from the Outrigger feel proud that Fred Hemmings, Jr., Joey Cabell and Paul Strauch will compete this year.

PERU

Peter Balding has been unanimously selected by the Club surfing committee to represent Outrigger in Peru at the Peruvian Meets early next year. Peter has a long and outstanding competitive surfing record with the Club and occupies the full time job of Club Captain. It is a well earned honor for Peter to represent us in Peru.

O.C.C. JUNIOR & SENIOR SURFING TEAM MEMBERS

Following is a list of the team members, junior and senior, as approved by the Surfing Committee.

The Surfing Committee has determined the following qualifications must be met in order to remain a team member. We believe participation in this manner will develop interest in our own surfing teams, as well as surfing as a sport:

1. You must be a member in good standing in the Outrigger Canoe Club.
2. You must enter the Outrigger Canoe Club Annual Surfing Meet, which is held in the summer.

3. You must enter two outside contests, such as the Makaha International, or the Hawaii State Championships, or any other qualified recognized meet here in Hawaii, but it is our belief that our team members must be active in surfing and participate in at least three events during the year to continue to be a competitor for our Club.
4. You must sign up as a member of H.S.A., and blanks are available here or at the H.S.A. office.

Ten-year-old Ken Morrow spread the fame of Outrigger during last month's Windansea Menehune contest in La Jolla.

Ken turned in a third place in the finals and also earned the Ronald B. Asaph Memorial trophy presented to the junior surfer most exemplifying the qualities of skill, sportsmanship and citizenship.

Ken financed his own trip to California with money earned delivering the Star-Bulletin and Advertiser.

He switched to the morning route while a member of the fine 12's who paddled in this summer's regattas.
