It Was a Macfarlane 4th of July at the OCC

OCC President Jeff Dinsmore welcomed paddlers at the pep rally.

Unlike recent Walter J. Macfarlane Regattas on the 4th of July, this one was notoriously flat with some bumps and occasional 1-2 foot waves.

In fact, it was so mellow that there were only two huli: in the first race between different branches of the Armed Forces, and in the novice A men's race.

But it was the novice men's huli that had the thousands of spectators on Waikiki Beach on their feet and shouting. (Photo on cover).

Outrigger's canoe was on a wave with Karel Tresnak Jr. steering. Heading into the finish, OCC was side by side with Kailua's novice men when the canoes started to veer into each other. It looked like Kailua's canoe was in Outrigger's lane, when suddenly the canoes hit and Outrigger's ama ended up atop Kailua's paddlers. Then Kailua's paddlers pushed Outrigger's ama off of them and our canoe huli'd.

No one was hurt and both canoes survived intact. Everyone has their version about how it happened, and whose fault it was, but in the end it's just another Macfarlane story that will live on to be told and retold.

Although Outrigger crews won many gold, silver and bronze medals, it was Lanikai who amassed 173 points to win the Macfarlane Trophy, followed closely by Outrigger with 167, Hui Nalu 146 and Kailua 140.

The Armed Forces race at the beginning of the day was won by the Navy Seals, who beat out the Coast Guard and a Navy crew made of up five top admirals from CINCPAC. The Army, Air Force and Marines also participated.

The 4th of July began with a breakfast at the Club for paddlers, a pep rally in the Ka Mo`i Lounge, and a day of racing at Waikiki Beach in front of the Club's first headquarters. As the sun began setting, members and their guests finished the holiday with a party at the Club with food, drink, dancing and fireworks.

Many thanks to Andrea Ray who chaired the Macfarlane event for the Canoe Racing Committee, to all of the paddlers, coaches, and boat holders for their determined efforts on the race course, the amazing steersmen and women who provided their expertise for 42 races, and the Club employees who welcomed us back to the Club for an evening of fun.

The 2014 regatta season winds up on Saturday, August 2 with the Hawaiian Canoe Racing State Championship Regatta at Keehi Lagoon.

Distance racing begins on August 17 with the Duke Kahanamoku Challenge from Kailua to the Duke Kahanamoku Beach at the Hilton Hawaiian Village. This race will be followed by the Kailua Bay Challenge for men on August 23 and the Dad Center Race for women on August 24.

Members of the Navy crew were all Admirals, including the head of CINCPAC: Harry Harris, Paul Kiamos, Bob Girrier, Alma Grocki, Russ Penniman and Sam Locklear.

Outrigger's Freshmen Women were Leilani Doktor, Erika Eberhart, Brooke Hunter, Tina Lighter and Vaima Philpotts.

Freshmen Men: Evan Rhodes, Al Van Gieson, Cory Nakamura, Stephen Enos, Nate Jenkins and Karel Tresnak Jr.

Kama'aina Kanikapila (aka "Oldtimers")

Mark your calendars for Monday, August 25th for the Kama'aina Kanikapila. It's the same special reunion as the "Old Timers Get-together" with a new name. All current and former members are welcome. Former members will not require a sponsor for this event. Limited reserved tables available with a one host responsibility. Please include names of all guests.

Get ready to dance hula, sing a song, play your ukulele, and enjoy the company of old friends and new acquaintances. Reservations at the Front Desk. $25. Entertainment by Live Aloha. A presentation of the OCC Historical Committee.

Junior Surfer of the Year Awards

The 5th annual John McMahon Junior Surfer of the Year Awards Night will be held on Monday, August 11th. Do you know a junior member dedicated to surfing that lives aloha every day? Come celebrate surfing, great food, fellowship, and get stoked with a new movie about surfing in Hawaii. Reserve your space at the front desk.

Personal Training at the Club

Infinity Fitness personal trainers are available for Club member training in the Outrigger Canoe Club fitness center, outdoors on land or water! Train for mind, body, strength, a new sport, to cleanse or paddle more efficiently! With five trainers to choose from, Infinity Fitness offers a variety of styles for all ages.

One of our trainers is Lauren Seaman who teaches the Core Fitness classes on Monday & Friday mornings from 6:15 -7:15 AM in the Koa Lanai. She is an AFAA certified personal trainer and Yoga Alliance-certified yoga teacher. Passionate about living a vibrant, healthy lifestyle, she aims to meet clients at their level, and to make workouts fun and accessible at any physical level.

Lauren has a background as a Division I collegiate scholarship athlete in tennis from Louisiana State University (LSU) from 2002-2006, followed by teaching tennis, yoga, and personal training professionally. Upon seriously injuring her back on the tennis court in 2006, she naturally became interested in preventive injury and good biomechanics in order to sustainably live an active, healthy lifestyle. For any questions or interest, please feel free to email her at book@iamfit.me.

For a complete list of fitness and massage offerings please visit www.iamfit.me or call 1.800.430.1561

We offer massage in the Boardroom on weekends by appointment. Contact Infinity at the above number for more information or to make an appointment.

As the Terrace Turns

Bruce Ames reports that his sister, former member, Laurie Birnsteel has published her memoir, Kahala. Growing Up in Hawaii and that it won first place in the 2014 Independent Book Publisher Awards. Bruce says that she references the old Club more than once in the book.

Members are invited to submit items for this column. Items may be emailed to occmag@aol.com, left at the Front Desk or faxed to 808 833-1591. Items received by August 25 will be included in the October magazine. Items received after August 25 will appear in November. Be sure to include your name and phone number in case additional information is needed.

OCC President Jeff Dinsmore presented the Patriot Award from the Employee Support of the Guard and Reserve to Hau Terrace manager Lance Tanaka at the May BOD meeting. OCC was nominated for the award by Sun Min Chun, a member of the National Guard, and server on the Hau Terrace. She thanked the Club for its support of her military service and for adjusting her work schedule to meet her military obligations. Lance is her supervisor. Thanks to Sun for her service to our country and to Lance for his flexibility in adjusting her schedule.

Rachel Kincaid and Anna Auerbach both attend the University of San Diego, Class of 2016. When they learned they also happened to be members of the Club, they quickly bonded. Here they are in Indianapolis, IN showing they were all about the "O" while at the NCAA Rowing Championships May 30-June 1. This was the first year USD broke into the top 20 national rankings and made it to the NCAAs (you have to be invited). After three days of competition, USD finished 15th overall in the nation.

Tim Lyons and Dave Rochlen (standing) shared a final lunch with Ricky Grigg before his passing.

John Boyer had a successful off-shore troll on his OC-1, catching both a mahi mahi and an ono. "Very low-yield endeavor but fun," he says.

Ron Haworth shows his patriotic side with the huge Elks Club flag.

BRING YOUR SPIRIT OF OLD AND NEW AND LIVE ALOHA

A Busy Day at Waikiki

The waters off Waikiki Beach were full of activity on the 4th of July. The traditional flotilla set up outside of the quarter-mile flags of the Macfarlane Regatta race course, there were surfers, swimmers, official boats, jet skis and six-man canoes. Here the OCC Men 60 power to the finish line of their half-mile race.

By Mary Caywood

The annual OCC Photo Contest for Club members, their immediate families and OCC staff will be held again this year, sponsored by the Public Relations Committee. Start taking photos now.

The contest will be open for entries October 10-31. The grand prize photo will be on the cover of the January 2015 OCC magazine. Other winners will also be published, and prizes awarded.

A new category this year is "Black and White", to include grays. There is no separate "Junior" category, but Junior members and junior age immediate family of Club members may enter the other categories.

Cell phone photos are accepted in all categories. Except for "Anything Goes," all photos must be taken at the Club, in or on the ocean near the Club, or sports and activities with Club members participating.

You may enter up to TWO photos in each of the following categories:

- CLUBSCAPE: Interior or exterior, our lovely surroundings, people enjoying themselves.
- OCEAN: Photo taken in or on the ocean near the Club.
- SPORTS & ACTIVITIES: OCC members participating in sports and activities. For other than Club scheduled events, give name of activity and location. May include family activities, etc. Give names of people in photo.
- CREATIVE PHOTO: Club related photo that has been significantly altered in Photoshop or other image-editing software.
- BLACK & WHITE: Includes grays. Same rules as above four categories.
- ANYTHING GOES: Any location, e.g., travel, scenic views, ocean anywhere.

More detailed instructions for entering the contest will be given next month, but start thinking about the photos you want to take now.

If people are included in the photos, at least one must be an OCC member, except for the Anything Goes category.

Entries must be 8" x 10" prints, plus JPEG versions of the prints for the OCC magazine. All entries become the property of OCC and will be placed in the Club archives.

Summer Scratch Fest

By Kalani Schrader, Photos by Mark Jackola

75 years and Under winners Nat Yee and Hunter Pflueger.

75 Year and Older winners
Brad Akeo and Jason Ciletti.

Initially the brainchild of Winged "O" recipient and OCC legend the late Cline Mann, the 2014 Summer Scratch Fest Paddleboard Surf Relay Race went off without a hitch on June 14 under sunny skies and 1-3 foot surf at Old Man Bowls.

Approximately 15 teams entered in this unique sprint race that had paddlers gathering at OCC from all over the island to participate in this grass roots special event.

Taking top honors and winning the combined age "Under 75" division was the promising junior team of Hunter Pflueger and Nat Yee. Right behind them, fellow junior athletes Aukai Manson and Ethan Siegfried crossed the finish line in second. Veteran waterman Billy Balding with his "show up, blow up" attitude teamed up with grom Drew Watumull on race day to take down third place in this hotly contested division.

Representing Ku`au on the east side, the team of Brad Akeo and Jason Ciletti made a last lap comeback to snag first place in the combined age "Over 75" division. Black Point and Rice Bowl regulators, Gregg Quinn and Blair Thorndike finished a strong second with Sean Ginella and Mike Cheape close behind in third and making the Kawela ahupua`a proud.

The second heat of the day featured the Same Last Name, Super Grom and Makule divisions.

Racing for pride and bragging rights to these prestigious division titles, Mike Takahashi and his son Peter traveled from Paumalu on the North Shore to finish first in the Same Last Name division. barely edging out the green-eyed Hawaiian team of twin brothers, Clark and Alex Abbey.

Excitement was high among participants and spectators as the spread between these two teams after four laps of neck and neck racing was literally inches at the finish. Third place was awarded to the competitive husband and wife team of Jack and Sue Kronen.

The brother and sister team of Cable and Elsa Kronen impressed all with their first place finish in the Super Grom division with OCC legacy offspring, Aukina Hunt and Hugh Piper a close second.

In the spirit of good fun competition and with a combined age of 136 years, longtime OCC members and contributors, Joe Dubiel and Mark Jackola teamed up to dominate and win the prestigious Makule division.

Special thanks to OCC management, Beach Services, the Paddleboard Committee and the crew in the woodshop for making this event possible. Also a big mahalo to all who showed up to participate, spectate and support the long-standing tradition of paddle boarding at Outrigger Canoe Club.

Until next year. Aloha.

Same Last Name winners were Peter and Mike Takahashi.

Super Grom winners Elsa and Cable Kronen.

Clark and Alex Abbey.

Ethan Siegfried and Aukai Manson.

Makule winners Mark Jackola and Joe Dubiel.

Hugh Piper and Aukina Hunt.

Swimmers Compete in Red River Marathon Swim

Club members Mike Miller and Stefan Reinke completed America's longest single day marathon swim race on June 21. The Extreme North Dakota Watersports Endurance Test (END-WET) is a 36 mile swim race on the Red River. The Red River flows northward through the Red River Valley, forming the border of Minnesota and North Dakota.

The race attracted competitors from around the country. Many were experienced marathon swimmers with swims such as the Kaiwi Channel, English Channel, Manhattan Island Marathon Swim, and the 24 Mile Tampa Bay Marathon Swim on their resumes.

The Race was held in flood conditions which had three major impacts: The water current ran fast, heavy rains lowered the water temperature (69 degrees F at race time), and there was heavy debris (such as tree limbs and branches). In order to secure the local authorities' permission to hold the event in the flood conditions, each participant was required to wear a personal floatation device.

Twenty-three swimmers started the race with 20 completing the entire course. Reinke finished third overall (second in the non-wetsuit category) in 8:46. Miller was ninth overall (6th non-wetsuit).

This was Reinke's longest swim event. Miller is an accomplished marathon swimmer having completed numerous swims including the English, Catalina and Molokai Channels.

Though the river appears muddy to the eye, the brown color is only suspended clay.

Employee of the Month

Toan "Joey" Luong

By Stephen Riede

Fry Cook Toan "Joey" Luong is the May Employee of the Month. Joey started as a dishwasher at the Club in 1983. He was promoted to Fry Cook and has held that position for the last 26 years.

Joey always shows flexibility no matter what task he is assigned. He is quiet, humble, and dependable and can be counted on to get the job done, no matter how hectic the kitchen might get. He is a team player and is well liked by the kitchen staff and management.

Executive Chef Doug Lum states: "Every chef rests easier having individuals like Joey Luong on their staff. He can be relied on to anchor any shift he works as he is able to work any station in the kitchen and he performs these tasks well every day he is here. Joey is one of those people who can always lift your spirits which helps to make work light. His sense of humor is infectious. I am proud to have him on our Culinary Team at Outrigger Canoe Club."

Congratulations Joey and thank you for your hard work and dedication to the Club and its members.

Backward Glances

By Barbara Del Piano

Fifty Years Ago, August, 1964
J. Cline Mann, President

Fashion Show Chairman, Mrs. Karl (Dorie) Vietsch, waxed most enthusiastically when she reported on the outstanding luncheon-fashion show held Saturday, August 1. Tickets cost $3 and the price included a delicious buffet luncheon. Fashions from Andrade's were featured. Mrs. Selma Philippi, Andrade vice president, did the commentary.

Two French-born chefs, Robert Goueytes, head chef, and George Chemarin, sous chef, have joined the Outrigger Canoe Club staff. Both were trained in France. Goueytes was brought to the Islands to launch the Ilikai's numerous restaurants, especially the Beau Rivage. Goueytes spent a year at Madrid's Jockey Club before heading for New York in 1957 as rotating chef for Pavillon. Chemarin, in Hawaii since 1959, has worked as a chef at The Pacific Club, Michael's in the Colony Surf, and at the Royal Hawaiian Hotel.

BOARD BRIEFS

Board Briefs is taken from the minutes of the meeting of the Board of Directors on June 26, 2014.

Membership Count: The Membership Count was 4,803 as of May 31, 2014.

Special Athletic Funds: A request for money from the Special Athletic Fund to participate in off island long distance races was withdrawn pending further review by the Athletic Committee. The President requested more history, if available, on the Special Fund including why it was created and if any guidelines are in place for using the funds.

Investment Advisor: The Board approved Morgan Stanley as the investment advisor for the Building Fund and custodian or advisor for the CIP fund, as deemed appropriate by the Finance Committee.

Insurance: The Board approved the insurance proposals as presented by Aon and Finance Insurance with the increase in the insured asset values for the property and flood coverage as stated in the Finance Committee minutes.

Kalanianaole Property: There is some increased activity and interest in the property. The Club will be renting the property intermittently to defray maintenance costs while efforts continue to find a buyer for the property. The Shoreline Survey is moving forward and should be done by September.

ODKF: The ODKF luncheon was a very successful event.

Financial Report: For May, there was net income of $27,313. Year to date $330,000 in initiation fees have been collected and deposited in the Operating Fund. Year to date $9,900 in initiation fees are reflected in the Building Fund and the Building Fund has net income of $175,992. . . Management is taking steps to increase revenue and monitor expenses.

Operations: Taco Tuesday attendance dropped and will be discontinued. . . The Hau Terrace menu revision is being implemented at the end of June. . . The Snack Shop menu will be revised. . . There will be some price increases in all venues to keep up with the rise in food and beverage prices.

Building & Grounds Report: The Koa Lanai lights are being re-wired. The Committee has completed approval on several projects:

- The Hau Terrace cage was given to the F & B Department to revise to fit their needs.
- The portable trophy case for the Bar is being built.
- The Volleyball Court project has been expanded. The project includes resealing, painting, and new fencing. The project will begin after Labor Day and take eight weeks. The courts will close during the work.
- New surfboard lockers are planned.

The committee will be working with LRP and Finance in evaluating future projects.

House Report: The committee is looking at ways to make the House Committee a better resource for management.

Long Range Planning Report: Some of the goals for LRP this year are:

- Definition of "athletic excellence" and what exactly "competitive" means would be useful in setting future goals.
- Athletic guidelines, policy, and procedures need to be formulated for year to year consistency.
- Board consensus for goals and objectives is essential. Board policies and Bylaw revisions are important in this process.

ON THE COVER: The Novice A Men's Race brought the most excitement in the 72nd Annual Walter J. Macfarlane Regatta on the 4th of July. Story and more photos on pages 2-6.
