LIFE SAVERS IN AUSTRALIA

Now in Australia is the Hawaii Life Saving team which will compete in the International Surf Life Saving events at Melbourne. Coached by Arthur Parkyn, they should give a good account for themselves and Hawaii. The nucleus of the team is made up of OCC members and the president of the group is Bob Fischer.

The trip was made possible when a group of local hotels and air carriers raised $2,000 at a luncheon jointly sponsored by the Halekulani Hotel and Pan American Airways.

Contributing to the fund were Matson, Halekulani, Reef, Biltmore and Hawaiian Village Hotels. The following airlines contributed: United, Pan American, Northwest, Qantas, Japan, Canadian Pacific, Hawaiian and IPA Aloha Airlines.

APPLICANTS FOR MEMBERSHIP

Below are listed the names of applicants to membership to our Club. Hard working Don Waggoner, Chairman of the Admissions Committee has interviewed each of them. They have been passed on by the Committee. It is now up to you. If for any reason you object to admitting any on this list to membership, make your reasons known to the chairman. Phone 5-9595. He will treat your information confidentially and with consideration. Our future lies in the quality of our members. The Committee takes every precaution to maintain a high standard—but it can be wrong. Please kookua.
