

When the waves came up big at "Old Man's," Ah Buck stopped fixing the kids' surfboards for awhile and surfed. We caught him riding one here with fellow surfing member, Larry Goen.

Young and "older" ride at "Old Man's." Mike Driscoll (white trunks), Johnny McMahon and Craig Emberson.

Sixteen-year-old Brant Ackerman slides left on a 7-footer at "Old Man's."

SURFING

What with the summer over and everything relatively calm, all of a sudden up comes the surf. From the 16th of September until this writing things have been boiling. 1965 was great all summer but we have had to settle for this 3-week rise. Adjacent to this column we have shown some surfing photos. In case you don't realize, OCC has some of the finest surfers in the islands as members. Some of them are Paul Strauch, Butch Van Artsdalen, Paul MacLaughlin, Gary Sheehan, Don Fowler, "Kumu" Kumukili, Peter Balding, Tom Bean, Brant Ackerman, Ah Buck Yee, Neal & Craig Emberson, Doug Bechert, Mike Driscoll and John MacMahon.

The World Championships will be held in San Diego this year, Sept. 26-Oct. 1, sponsored by the U.S. Surf Association. Included on the All Stars Team to represent Hawaii were OCC members Paul Strauch and Butch Van Artsdalen. Fred Hemmings, Jr. was also selected but declined due to his football commitments at the University of Hawaii.

During the September big surf a lot of spectacular rides were held 'n the OCC canoe with Bill Cook as steersman and Fred Lowrey, John Johnson and Kim Berg paddling, so come on down, there's a lot going on.

Bunny Lee, left, and Butch Van Artsdalen ride a 5-footer at "Old Man's."

Champion Paul Strauch, Jr. demonstrates his nose riding technique at "Old Man's."