

Divot-diggers dig Olomana

By Nat Norfleet, Jr., Golf Chairman

Under sunny skies, the 1973 edition of the Outrigger Golf Tournament was played at the Olomana Links on August 30, 1973. A good turnout of twenty-seven golfers showed their skills with Jon Sutherland and Harry Robello coming in with gross 82's to lead the low gross finishers. As usual, Duffer Peter Balding, who only plays once a year (?) scorched the course with an 85-16-69 to emerge the men's low net champion. The women's low net champion, Ann Chapman, zapped the course with a 101-26-75 to walk away with medalist honors. Other prizes went to perennial high grosser, Barbara Robello, with a 140-36-104.

Special awards for closest to the pin and long drive champion went to Harry Robello, who came within six feet of the cup, and to young Bill Capp for a booming drive of close to 400 yards. Actually, it rolled down the road a bit, but all's fair in the longest drive contest. He still beat Bob Anderson by 20 yards. Koa bowls will be awarded to all winners.

All in all, everyone enjoyed the fine pupus, the fine drinks, and the fine time. We do hope the next time more people will sign up, as fun was had by all.
