

Fall Golf Tournament Lures Forty Club Hackers

By Bill Capp

The semi-annual OCC Golf Tournament was held on November 14th at the Olomana Golf Course under the guidance of Bill Capp.

Forty members of the Club participated in the fall tournament, and with a limited number of birdies, a few more pars, plenty of bogeys, and beaucoup buzzards, everybody had a good time.

We were blessed with a typical Hawaiian day, gentle trade winds, scattered clouds, and visibility unlimited.

As each foursome completed its round, players were greeted by a charming hostess who served them with superb pupus and beverages.

The Pros claimed their share of the sixteen trophies with Pamela Anderson, Sam Kaaua, Jim Fleming, Al Franco, and Harry Robello coming through as expected.

The perennial High Gross Champion, Barbara Robello, almost blew it with a 136, which was only one stroke better—or worse—than Ruth Updegrove's 135.

If present plans hold, the next tournament will take place in April.
