

RIGGERS

by Frances Pearson

There is an interesting sidelight to the AAU's that few may know. No less than six OCC father-son combinations were in or closely associated with the tournament. Five Masters players had sons on the OCC's up and coming Junior Olympic squad plus Kaipo Young whose dad Wally is team manager. (See photo). Can anyone doubt that the Outrigger volleyball tradition goes from one generation to another? . . .

In volleyball at OCC it's like father, like son. (l to r): Bill Baird with son Kilo in front, Colin and Colin Chock, Jr., Peter Balding and son Peter, Jr., Tom and Marc Haine, Fred Hiapo and Fred, Jr., Wally Young and son Kaipo.
