

A flock of honors for Todd Bradley who represented OCC in the American Surfing Association US Championships in Huntington Beach in late December. He placed 11th out of 120 contestants to become one of 12 All-American surfers, thereby securing an invitation to the World Championships in Rio de Janeiro in July. Todd was also named to the Board of Governors for ASA and will serve as its US high school rep. .