

Show Up and Surf

By Joe Teipel

Surf's Up!—or so Bruce Ames, the Outrigger's Surfing Committee chairman, will presumably exclaim as he proclaims the start-up of the Club's annual surfing contest on the day the surf permits.

In recent years, all the rules and entry fees have been eliminated and this has caused a marked increase in participation, according to Ames. So, he recommends, people can just "show up and surf" and the judges will determine the top five winners with trophies as awards. Not to worry, though, you non-placing surfers. Everybody will receive T-shirts.

As always, the events will be held at "Old Man's" with divisions as follows:

Keiki's 11 and under, 13 and under; Women's Division (Open); Jr. Men's; Sr. Men's; Makule (35 and over) ("Makule" means old in Hawaiian).

Competition is scheduled to get under way Saturday, June 13, surf permitting. If it doesn't, the contest will occur on the first Saturday with acceptable surf. See you there! A Hui Hou.
