

OCC Wins Again

By Kelly Hutchinson

Outrigger volleyball teams are number one this year. During Easter weekend three teams from OCC went to Hilo to participate in the Haile tournament, in which a total of 76 teams were broken down into six divisions: three men's and three women's.

OCC entered three teams: The open team consisted of Jon Andersen, Jay Anderson, Marc Haine, Peter Balding, Kilo Baird, Mark Rigg, Ralph Smith and newly acquired player Elgin Calles. Masters division: Jon Stanley, Jon Haneberg, Tom Madison, Dave Shoji, Chris Crabbe, Chris McLauflin, Randy Shaw and Tom Selleck. The Golden Masters (45 and over) were John Beaumont, Tom Haine, Ron Sorrell, Fred Hiapo, Dave Hendrickson, Peter Balding Sr., Bob Kashare and Dan Oredson.

The open team placed 1st in the tournament by defeating a Maui team, Hilo team and BYUH. OCC's Masters placed 1st in their division, but they had to battle with the Golden Masters, who placed 2nd in the Masters division.

This is the 25th win out of 26 Haile tournaments Outrigger has swept up. We have some outstanding volleyball players!

This year's MVP was Marc Haine! All-tournament players for the open division were Jon Andersen, Mark Rigg, Ralph Smith and Elgin Calles. Masters all-tournament players were Randy Shaw and Jon Stanley. Golden Masters all-tournament players were Tom Haine, Fred Hiapo and John Beaumont. Congratulations to all of you.

Most of the Open team represented OCC at the annual awards Banquet. Then it was off to the Hilo night life. Participants in the fun were, ringleader and coach Dean Nowack, Marc Haine, Ralph Smith and Jon Andersen. Then a few others decided to go to the volcanoes instead.

These men worked hard and played hard. To all teams, "You're fabulous."
