

Fine Golf Outing at Navy-Marine

By Hal Mehlberg, Golf Chairman

"Beware the Ides of March" was ignored by 56 Outrigger golfers and their guests who braved the wind and drizzles interspersed with stretches of sunshine to take advantage of the opportunity to play the beautiful Navy-Marine Golf Course on March 15.

"We should have had surfboards instead of golf clubs," suggested one surfer, while one kamaaina thought the weather was like the Mainland.

The 11 ladies who participated took the weather in stride; Del Reirson grabbed Low Gross honors with a 90. Paige Vitousek's 70 was the Low Net winner.

Men's A Flight Low Gross was an 81 shot by Walt Fleischaker, and Bill Capp indicated that he is getting his game back by winning the Low Net trophy with a 68.

Men's B Flight Low Gross winner was Dick Thomas; a new golfer showed he is to be reckoned with by winning Low Net with a 67.

Bill Kilcoyne won Men's C Flight (Callaway Scoring) Low Gross with 91.

Closest to the Pin were John Melim, Curtis Shattuck and Ann Chapman.

As is sadly the usual case, several no-shows not only disrupted the schedule, but several prospective players who were on the waiting list were unable to play because of the late notification.

All the golfers particularly enjoyed the refreshments at the 19th hole but some of them left too early to participate in the drawings for free dinners at the Club Sunday Night buffet. Only those present for the drawings could win those prizes.

Golfers are reminded that the next tournament is scheduled for June 14 at Kaneohe Marine Corps Air Station, where some of the holes are as pretty as anything Pebble Beach has to offer. Watch The Outrigger for further info.

Photos by Hal Mehlberg

Bill Capp (Golfer of the Year) and Pam Dillingham (Women's Division winner).

Two avid golfers at the Navy Marine Golf Tournament held on March 15. Pat Wyman and Rab Guild (President of OCC).

Frank Walton

Golf Chairman Hal Mehlberg desperately tries to fill vacancies left by no-shows at the March tournament at Navy-Marine Golf Course.

Letters

Dear Wonderful Friends:

Your continuing kind and generous support of the Institute for Human Services, including your recent donations of food and clothing during the holiday season, is gratefully acknowledged.

This was of material help to the Rev. Dr. Claude DuTeil and his staff of volunteers in their efforts to provide a more meaningful life to the "Street People."

This humanitarian program continues to furnish three meals each day to 200-250 daily patrons, besides overnight lodging, medical assistance, laundry services, clothing, counseling, in addition to most of the amenities of a home, at no cost to the individual. Some of the more stable are now permanently employed and others have been reunited with their families. Even some of the unstable have been helped medically as well as psychologically.

The "Street People" in turn augment the volunteer staff in the various phases of their work. They also clean nearby public areas on a daily basis and assisted in decorating the Fort Street Mall for the holiday season.

We are very thankful to you for sharing in our efforts to bring more sunshine and hope into the lives of our fellow human beings.

May each of you be blessed with all the good things life has to offer.

Sincerely,
James F. Morgan for
Richard K. Peterson,
President