Sixty Outrigger golfers, including 10 lovely ladies, enjoyed a record-setting day at Olomana Golf Course on May 29. It was the hottest day on record for that date at 92 degrees.

The low score for the day was a 77 by Sam Kaaua in the men's group and a fine 82 by Julie Brooks for the ladies.

Other scores were as follows:

Men's A Flight (0-20 Handicap)

2nd Low Gross — James Gaddis, 79

3rd Low Gross — John Bishop, 81

Men's B Flight (20-40 Handicap)

1st Low Gross — Ian Emberson, 84

2nd Low Gross — Archie Kaaua, 91

1st Low Net — B. Hancock, 65

Men's C Flight (No Handicap)

1st Low Gross — Jim Schroeder, 80

2nd Low Gross — John Beaumont, 88

1st Low Net — Scott Nattenberg, 71

2nd Low Net — Jon Haig, 73

Another foursome were Julie Brooks, Marge Howe, Pam Dillingham and Martin Colbert.

Ladies Flight

1st Low Net — Leola Gaddis, 74

Closest to the Pin

Men — Charlie Robertson & Jack Byran

Women — Marian Perry

Several outstanding items about this tournament: Bill Capp missed his first

Outrigger golf tournament in 30 years; James Gaddis played the day before his marriage and scored a terrific 79.

All the golfers are looking forward to our next outing at Navy Marine sometime in August. The date has not been set but look for the bulletin in the Lobby and sign up early. See you all there. 🏌️
