

Golf Chips From the 19th Hole

By Frank E. Walton

Joie Gopez and Stan Brown, with scores of 88 and 85 respectively, managed to solve the perverse greens at Hickam AFB on Tuesday, December 8 sufficiently to emerge the winners of the Low Gross trophies in the Club's last 1992 golf outing.

The weather was great and the course (except for those wayward greens which seemed to cause some putts to avoid the cup) was in good condition. Jim Hammons reports that he and a few others came up with scores more resembling a bowling alley than a golf course. Only one player's net score was under 70 (Jim Gaddis with a 67 to annex Low Net honors for men), while Sally Monahan won Ladies Low Net with a 77.

Joie Gopez, Stephanie Dullum and Adney Smith won the Closest-to-the-Pin awards.

Terri Lui Match-Play Champion

Terri Lui, with wins over Eloise Dillingham, Meade Wildrick, Pam Dillingham, Stan Brown and Jim Gaddis, emerged as the Club's first (and probably only) coed Match-Play champion.

In response to popular demand, the OCCG returns to separate Kane and Wahine Match-Play tournaments this year in order to produce both Kane and Wahine Annual Champions.

Consistency Winners for the Year

Winners of the Consistency Golfer of the Year awards (given for the best total scores in four outings during the year) were:

Kane Low Gross	Don Cutting	(325 over 72 holes)
Wahine Low Gross	Terri Lui	(344 over 72 holes)
Kane Low Net	Vic Hawthorne	(274 over 72 holes)
Wahine Low Net	Joie Gopez	(296 over 72 holes)

Annual Award Presentations

All annual awards were presented at the Annual OCCG Meeting and Awards Banquet at the Club on January 20. The winners named are engraved on the Perpetual Golf Trophy which is on display in the OCC Trophy Case in the Main Lobby.
