Golfers Play Turtle Bay

The Outrigger Canoe Club golfers took their swings and their faith in the weather gods to Turtle Bay on July 14 and got lucky. Almost the moment the group teed off, the weather, which had been rainy and gloomy, cleared. Sun and blue skies replaced the damp, and only a stiff wind remained to torment the tournament players.

Evidently more holes aligned themselves with the wind than against it, as OCC golfers shot good scores and hit long drives. Erick Ellgren carded a 79 gross score, followed by Ralph Dewitt's 85. Low net honors went to Rick Piper (70), Jon Whittington (74), and Mark Osmun (75).

Sticking shots closest to the pin on the par-three holes were Mark Osmun at the 178-yard #4 hole, Jon Whittington at the 135-yard #8 hole and Ralph DeWitt at the 150-yard 15th hole.

Next month's tournament will be at the Oahu Country Club.
