

2013 Aikane Cup Goes to the Pacific Club

By Uli Frowein

After having won the prestigious Aikane Cup for two consecutive years, the OCC golfers had to relinquish this year's Cup to the Pacific Club. The Aikane Cup is a yearly tournament in Ryder Cup format between the golfers of the Pacific Club and OCC.

The 2013 Aikane Cup was hosted by the OCC golfers as defending champions and took place at beautiful Kaneohe Klipper Course in ideal conditions, followed by dinner and the trophy ceremony.

OCC Aikane team golfers were Jordan Chouljian (team captain), Ralph DeWitt, Jon Andersen, Hargon Holland, Jon Whittington, Phil Sevier, Bob Nemechek, Judy Jordan, Rodger Hoffman, Gunner Schull, Eric Tema, Scott Meichtry, Uli Frowein (alternate) and Gary Oliveira (GM's match).

With three Four Ball matches, one Alternate Shot match and four Singles matches played, the outcome of the 2013 Aikane Cup came down to the very last and exiting match. The final tally was OCC 3.5 points, Pacific Club 4.5 points.

Next year, the 2014 Aikane Cup will be hosted by the Pacific Club and the OCC golfers are determined to bring this fabled koa bowl back to the OCC trophy case.

TOP: The 2013 Aikane Cup team: Front: Jordan Chouljian, Scott Meichtry, Judy Jordan, Jon Whittington, Hargon Holland, Gary Oliveira, Phil Sevier. Back: Eric Tema, Gunner Schull, Bob Nemecheck, Rodger Hoffman, Uli Frowein, Ralph DeWitt, Jon Andersen.

BOTTOM: OCC team captain Jordan Chouljian hands over the Aikane Cup to Pacific Club team captain Creighton Goldsmith.

