

OCC Golfers Play Masters at Waialae Country Club

By Uli Frowein

The April tournament of the OCC Golfers took place at the Waialae Country Club. A record turnout of 40 golfers enjoyed a great course and perfect Kona wind conditions. A big mahalo to Judy Jordan who organized this wonderful event and also to the other six sponsoring WCC members – Celia Ching, Denis Leong, EJ MacNaughton, Leighton Lam, John Matias and Tim Mobley.

Since this was the “Masters” tournament where competitors could double their winning reward points for the yearly series, the competition was intense. Amelia Andrade prevailed with the lowest gross score for women. For the men’s lowest gross score, it was a tough tie between Mark Bratton and Matt Gilbertson and at the end Mark won the tie breaker. The lowest scoring WCC member was EJ MacNaughton.

For the lowest net score, Phil Sevier placed first after yet another tie breaker against Don Cutting. Also honored at the 19th hole were the winners of the closest-to-the-pin jackpot which were Don Cutting, John Matias, SE Lee and finally Phil Sevier with only 3-foot 3-inches away from the 16th hole.

Check the bulletin boards and weekly OCC e-mails for details on the upcoming venues of the OCC Golfers.