The May tournament of the OCC golfers took place at Hickam's Mamala Bay Golf Club under good course and weather conditions. Since this was the "Masters" tournament where OCC Golfers needed to participate as qualification for the OCC Club Championship later this year, the turnout was solid and the competition was intense. A big mahalo goes to Phil Sevier, the fearless leader of the OCC Golfers, who organized this wonderful event.

Loren Pulice prevailed with the lowest net score for women, followed by SE Lee and Tiffany Aull. For the men's lowest net score, Chuck Jones placed first, Uli Frowein second and John Conway third.

Chuck Jones also had the lowest men's gross score whereas on the women's side the prize for the lowest gross score went to Marie "Mel" Hicks.

Also honored at the 19th hole were the winners of the closest-to-the-pin jackpot which were John Conway and JT Tuinei. JT also won the prestigious prize for the longest drive.

During the first half of the year, the OCC Golfers were joined by several new players and wish to thank Loren Pulice, Tiffany Aull, Marie 'Mel' Hicks, Chuck Jones, Mike Stayton and Max de Wolff for participating and joining the camaraderie.

Check the bulletin boards and weekly OCC e-mails for details on the next venues of the OCC Golfers after the summer break, starting on September 15 with the Klipper Golf Course on beautiful Kaneohe Bay, followed by the traditional Aikane Cup on October 1 when the OCC Golfers will battle it out against The Pacific Club in exciting Ryder Cup format.
