

REGATTA EVENTS FOR TOMORROW NUMEROUS

Fleet Crews Will Take Part In Rowing Races

CANOE EVENTS SHOULD PROVE EXCITING

First Race at 9 O'Clock — Service and Racing Cutters Will Compete During Afternoon — Much Interest in Events.

Tomorrow from 9 o'clock in the morning till dark there will be one round of sports going on, and what with rowing races and baseball games, the sports-loving public will be kept going all the time.

The Regatta promises to be as good as any in the past, and the men-of-war rowing events should be simply splendid. The sailors' races will be a feature of the day, and the sight of the racing cutters flying through the water will be as pretty as has been seen in Honolulu harbor for a long time.

The finishing post will be just at the foot of Fort street near the old Kipau wharf, and the yacht Hawaii will be anchored off there. A line drawn from the end of the wharf to the Hawaii will be the finish, and the big crowd of spectators will, no doubt, crowd around that spot in thousands.

The Senior six-oar race promises to be a very close one, and the friends of both the Myrtles and Healanis won't hear of their crews being defeated. The Freshmen crews will also put up a great race, and although the Myrtles are feeling

(Continued on Page 7)