

The Outrigger Club is getting busy on a proposition to build some kind of a house for the members to change their clothes in. Mr. Bonine, the moving picture man, has promised to give a benefit performance at the Bonine theater on Dec. 22, and the receipts from the show will be devoted to the fund for erecting the bath house at Waikiki.