Allan Herbert, one of the most enthusiastic patrons of the Outrigger Club, will give a chowder on the club grounds this afternoon, at five o'clock, to the boys who helped to make last night's entertainment at the Bonine theater such a grand success. Mr. Bonine will be there, as also the musicians who so kindly played last night, as well as many prominent members of the club and all the live ones who sold tickets.

Sport Notes