

Mrs. Swanzy, the president of the Women's Auxiliary of the Outrigger Club desires the members of the committees for the chowder dance and all the other members of the club who are interested to meet for the talking over of the arrangements, at her house in Manoa Valley this morning at half past ten.

This afternoon at three o'clock at the home of Mrs. B. F. Dillingham a drawing-room talk will be delivered by Mrs. Commissioner Estill of the Salvation Army who arrived on the Alameda Saturday, and is here to look over the work of that organization here and to attend the opening of the new Manoa rescue home.
