

Society

(Continued from Page 3.)

Ixora blooms were prominent on the well appointed table, and the place cards bore the Hawaiian coat of arms. Among those present were German Consul Pfotenhauer, Mr. Foeke, Mr. Rodiek, Mr. Hamburg, and the guests of honor.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Hammond spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. John Merrill at San Mateo.

Mr. and Mrs. Julius H. Kruttschnitt, Jr., are in town for a brief visit, and are at the Hotel Victoria.—Chronicle.

C. H. Hindig of Honolulu is registered at the Graystone.—Chronicle.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Smith entertained at a prettily appointed dinner Wednesday evening in honor of Miss Alice Macfarlane of Honolulu.—Chronicle.

Colonel and Mrs. William C. Appel, who are spending the winter at the St. Xaxier, left Tuesday for Coronado, where they will be guests of Mrs. Seebree and her father for a week.—Chronicle.

Mr. and Mrs. Seymour Hall (Ruth Houghton) sailed Tuesday on the Manchuria to spend their honeymoon in Hawaii.—Chronicle.

The Wooden Wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Berndt was celebrated at their home at Kaimuki on Thursday evening, the decorations being carried out in shavings, and bridge occupying the evening.

Among those present at the celebration were Dr. and Mrs. Walter Hoffman, Mr. and Mrs. Farrington, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Thayer, Mr. and Mrs. Zeno K. Myers, Mr. and Mrs. Harleton, Mr. and Mrs. Marston Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Douthitt, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Berndt, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Johnston, Mr. and Mrs. Cignoux, Emme Dimond and Fitz Boering.

Photographer Williams is the maker of a lot of beautiful calendars which will carry Hawaii scenes all over the world. They show, in colors, a score of local landscapes. The best photos of Waikiki's beauty spots are on these calendars, as well as pictures of many other places which are the delight of artists who visit this territory. "From Paradise, Honolulu," is the label on the calendar, and the pictures justify the label. They are a splendid set and the calendars will delight many a faraway home as reminders of relatives or friends in Hawaii.

H. M. Queen Liliuokalani, accompanied by Mr. John D. Aimoku, and a maid left in the Mongolia for San Francisco, where she plans to spend a month for the purpose of meeting her late husband's relatives. While in San Francisco the queen and party will reside at the Hotel Stewart, and will be entertained by her numerous friends there who always await her coming with great pleasure.

After leaving, the party will proceed to Boston, stopping there for a month or two after which they will go to Washington for the winter.

Queen Liliuokalani expects to return to Honolulu late in the spring.

Cards are out this week giving the announcement, by Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Grote, of the marriage of their daughter, Miss Freida, to Hugo Huttman, of San Francisco. The wedding will take place on the eighteenth of December at 6 p. m. in the Lihue Lutheran church.—Garden Island.

The regular monthly meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Outrigger Canoe Club was held on the morning of Wednesday the first of December at the residence of the president, Mrs. F. M. Swanzy. Various matters of business were discussed and a statement was made by Mrs. Swanzy a head of the executive committee, regarding the chowder dance given on the nineteenth of November last.

The total receipts amounted to $386.75, itemized as follows.

Candy Table.....	$ 23.50
Fruit Punch and Ice Cream....	24.95
Sale of Programs.....	52.80
Donations in Cash.....	17.00
Tickets sold by the Woman's Auxiliary .....	165.50
Tickets sold by O. C. C.....	62.00
Money taken in at the door....	41.00

$386.75

Total Expenditures..... 86.10

..Net Proceeds.....$300.65

Of this amount $300.00 will be held by the treasurer of the Woman's Auxiliary subject to the order of the building committee of the Outrigger Canoe Club, the remaining $100.00.65 to be reserved for permanent improvements of the W. A. building.

Assistance in getting up the chowder dance was generously given from many quarters—by the Army and the Navy, by various business houses and by numerous other friends of the club. The Woman's Auxiliary desire to publicly express herewith its most appreciative thanks to all who so graciously contributed to the success of its entertainment.

The Woman's Auxiliary also states that during the months of December and January there will be no chaperones on duty at the club quarters owing to the great difficulty in getting members to serve during this season when all are much occupied with holiday work. Those sending children to the club are requested to provide proper attendance.

The German Cruiser Arcona arrived last Friday and was warmly welcomed again to Honolulu by her hosts of friends. All the officers have a warm spot in their hearts for San Francisco, having been treated royally while there. The one regret that seems to prevail is that the time spent in the metropolis was all too short.

Judge and Mrs. Woodruff, who for the past few months have been residing at the Pleasanton, departed in the transport Thomas for the mainland. They will, after a short stay in San Francisco, proceed to New York, where they will reside permanently.

Miss Alice Macfarlane of Honolulu still continues to have much social attention showered upon her, and on Thursday evening was the motif of one of the pretty dinners of the week given by Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Foster Dutton entertained at a large dinner at the Fairmont Thursday evening in honor of Miss Alice Macfarlane of Honolulu, who is spending the winter here.—Chronicle.

The advent of a warship in Hawaiian waters usually means an activity in social circles, and the arrival of the German cruiser Arcona caused the same pleasant flutter of excitement, as on its previous stay only perhaps more interest was exhibited this time the ship coming, as she did from a scene of riotous days of festival, such as were seen in the metropolis over the sea.

From the moment of her arrival, the officers of the good ship knew no idle hours, the German Colony here en masse endeavoring to create in the minds and memory of all the boys a vivid picture of hospitality.

On Saturday evening a stag dinner was given at which Mr. Schaefer acted as host and where eighteen guests were bidden to partake of lavish hospitality. Captain Schroeder, Lieutenant Commander Connoman, Lieut. Commander Albrecht, Lieut. Fahrfieldt, Lieut. von Bonnhard, and Dr. Krause represented the cruiser Arcona on this occasion.

On Sunday, a prettily appointed luncheon was given at the Pacific club in honor of the officers and their commander, Captain Schroeder at which Consul Pfotenhauer presided as host. Some of the officers attended while