

OUTRIGGER CLUB DIRECTORS MEET

The directors of the Outrigger Club held a meeting last night at the Hawaiian Hotel. The bids for the new bathhouse were opened and the lowest one of $675 was accepted. This amount is a trifle more than the sum in hand, and a committee was appointed to go out and get the balance.

Kenneth Brown, captain and live wire of the club, was present, and he stated that the balance can soon be raised and that the exhibition of surf-riding and surf-canoeing, to be given while the Clark excursionists are here, can easily be arranged.

The Kamehameha Athletic Club will be invited to take part in the exhibition, and everything bids fair for a fine exhibition of the great Hawaiian sport while the tourists are here.

A vote of thanks was passed to the ladies of the Auxiliary Club, who have done so much to make the Outrigger Club what it is today, a place for malihinis of both sexes to be entertained and initiated into the wonderful delights of surf-riding.
