

The Outrigger Club has arranged to fit up some canoes with glass bottoms in the same way as the famous Catalina wherries, which enable the tourist to obtain a clear view of the wonderful marine gardens of Avalon bay. The idea is a good one and if the canoes can be arranged to carry the glass-bottomed boxes and still be able to mount the surf, the idea would be a great success.