

The Outrigger Club chowder will be held this evening at six o'clock, and all members are requested to attend and hapai a quarter in silver to pay their whack of the expense. The foundations of the new bathhouse have been laid, and the building, which will be fifty by sixteen feet, will be soon rushed along to completion.