

SURFING PROGRAM

The surfing program of the Outrigger Club at Waikiki, this afternoon will start at 3 o'clock. Following is the program complete:

Six paddle canoe race—From the Moana pier to Brown's and return, passing the Outrigger grounds twice, start and finish.

A race between a canoe and a surfboard. Harold Hustace will hoe his surfboard before the full frontage of the Outrigger Club against any boy in a Hawaiian canoe.

A sailing race between a number of modern Hawaiian sailing canoes. These will start out from the Outrigger beach and sail a mile to sea and come in coasting on the big waves, all sails spread.

A two paddle canoe race, over the regular course.

The women's canoe race.

A four paddle canoe race.

And then—

The surfing contests for the Clark cups.

There will be surfing of every kind on every kind of surfboard, and the handsomest of the Clark cups will be awarded to the most skilful surfers. The judges will be Watson Ballentyne, Kenneth Winter and Guy Macfarlane.

There will be two crews of Outrigger boys in the great six paddle race. The regular unconquered Outrigger crew, composed of K. Brown, Vincent Genovis, David Center, Edmund H. Melanphy, Wm. Cottrell and Harry Steiner, and the Strawberry crew, made up by Alfred Young, Eaton Magoon, Duke Paua, Elmer Evans, Kenneth Winter and Ted Cooper.

R. B. Rietow will act as starter for the races.

The swimming race between the teams of the Outrigger Club and the Diamond Heads will be participated in by the following:

Outriggers—Ben Vincent, Alfred Young, Cooper, Harry Steiner, Evans and "Rusty" Brown, captain.

D. H. A. C.—D. Center, Girdler, Duke, L. Cunha, C. Oss, and Archie Robertson, captain.
