

ENTRIES TO DATE FOR THE WASHINGTON DAY FLORAL PARADE

---

Nearly sixty decorated automobiles and floats are definitely entered in the Floral Parade for Washington's birthday celebration, in addition to the scores of riders, the bicycle peddlars, the various cavalcades of the Island Princesses, the military, the six bands, the special features and, last but not least, the two hundred or so Elks.

This is assurance of a great event.

A number of the individuals preparing decorated automobiles do not wish any announcement of their names until the day of the parade, but the committee is able to state that the following will be in the line.

Decorated automobiles—J. A. McLean, Mrs. J. M. Dowsett, J. A. Gilman, James W. Pratt, Mrs. A. G. Hawes Jr., Mrs. M. F. Prosser, Allan Herbert, Mrs. Annie C. Hustace, the press (Star, Bulletin and Advertiser), University Club, Commercial Club, Kaimuki Improvement Club, Palama Settlement, Promotion Committee, Harvard graduates, Princeton graduates, Punahou College, the public schools and the Punahou alumni.

Floats—Kamehameha Schools, Normal, Aliiolani College, College of Hawaii, E. O. Hall & Son, B. F. Ehlers & Co., McCabe, Hamilton & Renny, Chinese merchants, Chinese young business men, German colony, British colony, Portuguese colony, Japanese colony, Fort Shafter, Trent & Co., and Outrigger Club.

The graduates of Old Eli are not yet in line, but the big Y will probably be seen in the line, nevertheless.