

The Clark cups will be contested for later on, when the surf is better than at present. A. H. Ford is arranging to have the big tripod, from which moving pictures are to be taken, set up once more. It was knocked down by the sea a few days ago and has to be once more erected.