

guest, Mrs. Jennings, Captain and Mrs. Moore, Mrs. Pardee, Dr. and Mrs. Smith, the hostess' mother, Mrs. Baldwin, Miss Allen, Miss Alice Spalding, Dr. and Mrs. Charles Bryant Cooper, Miss Ethel Spalding, Lieutenant Brown, Lieutenant Pardee, Lieutenant Rogers, Lieutenant McCleary, Lieutenant Chilton, and others.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Moore Entertains Bridge Club.

The house of Captain and Mrs. Moore at Fort Shafter made a pretty setting Wednesday afternoon, when this charming woman entertained the Wednesday Afternoon Bridge Club. This club has been recently organized, the members of which are all women belonging to different branches of the service. The membership is limited to sixteen. Each member takes her turn in entertaining and, when the club meets at her house, supplies the prizes. Wednesday Mrs. Frederick Ramsey won the prize—a beautiful brass Chinese lantern. Mrs. Ward of Fort de Russey won the second prize, an inlaid Oriental fan. About five o'clock delicious refreshments were served. This club meets fortnightly and is thoroughly enjoyed by the members. Among those present Wednesday were Mrs. Moore, Mrs. Pardee, Mrs. Chapman, Mrs. Sheady, Mrs. Chaulker, Mrs. Wilcox, Mrs. Roberts, Mrs. Ward, Mrs. Putnam, Mrs. Marix, Mrs. Hornberger, Mrs. Falls, Mrs. Ramsey, Mrs. Wilcox, Mrs. Turner and Mrs. Smith.

★ ★ ★

Miss Miller and her brother, Mr. H. H. Miller of Oakland, Cal., after an extremely pleasant visit in the Islands, returned to their home Wednesday on the Wilhelmina. During their stay in Honolulu the Millers has apartments at the Moana Hotel. During their sojourn they were the incentive for much entertainment. Governor and Mrs. Frear, Mr. and Mrs. C. Holloway, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Lowrey and a number of other island people, who were old friends of theirs, saw that their visit was enjoyable.

★ ★ ★

Outrigger Carnival.

The Outrigger Carnival on June 10th is growing in proportions. There will be in addition to the regattas and surfing sports afternoon and evening, a crowd, dances at the hotels and Outrigger lanai, vaudeville on an immense stage built for the occasion and supplied with a full set of scenery by the McRaes. There will also be a dozen attractive booths presided over by the ladies of Honolulu, who are now making up their committees. There will be flower booths. Ice cream parlors, soft drink saloons, fortune-telling encampments, imu's on the beach in which sea food will be baked under sand, tea and coffee parlors, grab bags and things that will attract the children. The Outrigger grounds will be enclosed and admission only by ticket. The dances at the hotels and the big stage entertainment will be open to all ticket holders. Nearly a thousand tickets have already been sold and this promises to be the big event of the season.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Bishop's Luncheon.

Eighteen guests were present at the luncheon which was given Wednesday afternoon in honor of Mrs. F. R. Day, Mrs. Warren, mother of Mrs. Hobdy, and Mrs. Sherman, sister of Mrs. D. Howard Hitchcock. This dainty repast was served on the seaside lanai of the Bishops' Waikiki home. The guests were seated at two tables. One of the tables was ornamented with cosmos and the other with large white Marguerites. Handsome place cards indicated the places of the guests. After luncheon several rubbers of bridge were enjoyed. Among those present were Mrs. E. Faxon Bishop, Mrs. F. R. Day, Mrs. Sherman, Mrs. Warren, Mrs. E. Moit-Smith, Mrs. Frederick Jewett Lowrey, Mrs. Walter Frear, Mrs. Babbitt, Mrs. C. B. Wood, Mrs. E. W. Jordan, Mrs. Hobdy, Mrs. Walter Hoffmann, Miss Jessica Irwin, Miss Margaret Walker, Mrs. Hosmer, Mrs. Walbridge, Mrs. Leopold and Mrs. Blackman.

★ ★ ★

Birthday Luncheon.

Mrs. C. B. Wood entertained delightfully Thursday at luncheon in honor of her daughter's birthday. This entertainment was a complete surprise to this charming young girl. The affair was cleverly arranged. The luncheon was served in an artistic rustic house in the spacious grounds encompassing this home. The house presented a bower, the ceiling was covered with greenery and flowers, the sides were garlanded with ferns and leis. The table, arranged for fourteen guests, was decorated in the center with a large cut glass bowl filled with pink carnations, and on either side of this bowl was placed cut glass vases filled with pink bigonias. These vases were artistically placed about two feet apart down the length of the table. At one o'clock Miss Wood was