

as there are no less than twenty-seven prizes, there will be some fine shooting done for some of the trophies.

In yesterday's event the scores were as follows:

- Major Long, 18 out of 28.
- Harvey, 18 out of 20.
- W. M. Vincent, 17 out of 30.
- H. B. Odell, 16 out of 28.
- I. Spalding, 13 out of 20.
- C. W. C. Deering, 13 out of 26.
- C. White, 13 out of 30.

Harvey and Long tied at eighteen birds each in the first shoot, and then again in the second they both grassed ten. In the third shoot Long hit ten and Harvey accounted for only seven.

There will be a luncheon provided for visitors and members on Sunday next, and a cordial invitation is extended to everyone to attend.

OUTRIGGER CLUB WILL HAVE JACKIES IN SHOW

Midshipmen, Cadets and Many Others to Do Surfing Stunts—A Great Time Planned for Fourth.

The middies of the Cleveland, the cadets of the Belgian training ship L'Avenir, and some of the mauka boys of Honolulu will be among the contestants of the six-paddle races on July Fourth over the Outrigger course at Waikiki. The Belgian boys were out yesterday in the surf practising, and the American jackies will be invited.

A race between the American sailor boys, the Belgians and the Honolulu boys who know as little of outrigger canoes as either, will prove interesting. Past experience has demonstrated that, given a steerer in each canoe, the jackies very quickly learn to use the paddle and prove formidable opponents.

Charles Royal has invited the Belgian boys to his big minstrel and vaudeville show at the Outrigger lagoon on the night of the Fourth and will probably extend a similar invitation to the Yankee middies. It is possible that some of the sailor boys will enter the big cakewalk that precedes the dancing on the night of the Fourth.

Allan Herbert will prepare a chowder for those who help to make the show a success, and a great time is expected at Waikiki on the Fourth, afternoon and evening.
