

OUTRIGGER JINKS.

Charles Royal has written a new "Outrigger" song which will be sung for the first time on the night of the Fourth at the Outrigger Theater at Waikiki. Baby Elliott will sing the song, and it is likely to be a go. The big show that night will open with another song by Royal. H-O-N- But why give the secret away, go and hear his thirty minstrels break in with the chorus.

The Outrigger Theater will not open until eight p. m. on the Fourth, but from three to six in the afternoon the regatta will be in progress. Berger's band will be on the grounds all evening and Kaai will provide the music for the dancing after the show in the big pavilion. This is the "Commencement" of the Outrigger season, for the big surf is now on for the summer and the members will be too busy with their canoes and surfboards to think of other entertainments until fall—at least.
