
OUTRIGGER BOYS WILL CONTEST FOR CUPS

The stunts at the Outrigger Club will begin at three o'clock this afternoon and last until after midnight. The regatta will start at three o'clock, the surfing contest for the two remaining Clark cups at five, and at eight o'clock sharp Charles Royal will raise the curtain of the Outrigger Theater on his company of forty minstrels and vaudeville artists.

The July tides have created an immense surf that will probably run for the rest of the season, and there is promise of much excitement this afternoon. The crews from the Chattanooga, the Cleveland and the Belgian training ship promise some rare rivalry for the Outrigger boys.
