

NEW OFFICERS TO BE ELECTED

Outrigger Annual Meeting This Month Adopts New By-Laws.

Dr. Doremus Scudder is spoken of as president of the Outrigger Club, the election of officers for which is to take place the latter part of January, the incumbent of the office, Judge Dole, contemplating an extended trip abroad.

According to the talk heard among the members of the club, those who have been most active in club affairs for the past year are to be elected to office, in the belief that their activities will be of great benefit to the club if they are elected to office.

Those spoken of in connection with the different offices are Dr. Victor Clark, Dr. A. C. Wall, G. H. Tuttle, A. M. Nowell, E. M. Ehrhorn and Irwin Spalding, and on the house committee L. D. Canfield, D. L. Peterson, A. T. Woodruff, A. C. O. Linne-mann, G. H. Tuttle and Charles Crane are spoken of.

At the annual meeting, the new by-laws, which place great emphasis on amateur sports, especially swimming, surfing and canoeing, will come up for adoption.
