

The Women's Auxiliary of the Out-rigger Club held a meeting yesterday and some important business was transacted. The institution is in a flourishing condition, and the members and their children put in a lot of time at the beach.