

WATER SPORTS

FOR JUNE 12

Kamehameha Aquatic Club Holds Annual Regatta With Five Events.

During the morning of June 12 there will be aquatic sports of various kinds at Kallhi, the events forming the program of the annual regatta of Kamehameha Aquatic Club.

Both men and women take part in the five events on the program of day's sports, the first thing to be started in the morning being a two-paddle canoe race for ladies.

Then there are two races for men, one a four and the other a six-paddle affair, and two canoe sailing races.

After the first three races are finished there will be a big luau given, and then the sailing races will come in the afternoon.

Ed Crawford will receive entries up to June 10, the entry fee for the first-class sailing race being $2, and for the other events $1.

Program.

First race—Ladies' two-paddle canoe, free for all. First prize, $2.50; second prize, $1.50. Course, from stake off club headquarters to judges' boat, around it and back to starting point.

Second race—Men's four-paddle canoe, free for all. First prize, $4; second prize, $2. Course, same as for the first event.

Third race—Men's six-paddle ancient canoe, for championship of all Hawaiian outriggers; free for all. Prize, cup or cash and leis. Course, half a mile.

Then comes the big luau, which will last from noon till 1 o'clock for the contestants. The rest of the bunch will probably squat down and eat the good things till darkness closes in.

Fourth race—Sailing between modern canoes, first class, for championship of all Hawaii. The event is free for all, and the course is two and a half miles.

There must be four starters to make a race, and the winning boat will take the championship, besides a silver cup and $5. The silver cup is to be won twice out of three times—in succession.

Second, third and fourth prizes of $3, $2.50 and $2 are also provided.

Fifth race—Sailing modern canoe, second-class championship of Hawaii; free for all. Course, same as fourth race. Prizes: First, $3 and club ribbon; second, $2.50; third, $1.50.
