

LOCAL BOYS

PASS AT YALE

Lowthian Williams and Alfred Young, graduates of Punahou, who this year took the College Entrance Examination Board examination for admission to Yale have been notified by cablegram that they have both passed successfully all of their examinations. The boys are receiving congratulations on their splendid showing. Williams, who is a son of J. N. S. Williams of Kahului, was high scholar and President of his class at Punahou. He was also prominent in athletics as manager and track man. Young is a son of J. O. Young of The Waterhouse Company who besides his scholarship record has made a name for himself locally on the track team at Punahou and in the outrigger club. Both boys will enter College this year.
