MAN EXPLAINS ALL ABOUT MATTER

There is a rumpus about the Outrigger Club not having entered for the aquatic meet, and Watson Ballentyne is kicking like a steer over the matter. He says that he resigned as captain of the club shortly before he joined the other organization. He says that there was a notice posted for some time at the club and those who wished to work out were asked to do so. H. Chapman was the only other man besides Ballentyne who turned out and it was decided two weeks ago that there was no chance of entering a team. The talk of going around to John Soper at the last minute is branded as a fake by Ballentyne.

E. F. Melanphy was seen last night about the matter and he had the following to say;

"It is not a case of cold feet, but simply that we have not got the material," said E. F. Melanphy in explaining last night why the Outrigger Club will not enter a team in the swimming races. "We had to step out for lack of men. In the future we probably will have a team in."

Watson Ballentyne was appointed captain of the swimming team which the Outrigger Club was expected to enter. In his judgment he decided he could not get a team together, and he decided it would be best for the club to keep out of it this year.

Many of the members belong also to the Healani Boat Club and the Myrtle Club. When it comes to swimming they naturally go to their own boat clubs, said Mr. Melanphy.
