

PATHE FRERE SURF

PICTURES ON VIEW

The Pathe Frere motion pictures of surfing will be one of the features at the Outrigger Club entertainment Saturday evening, in addition to the regatta, the chowder and the dance. These motion pictures of the outriggerites have never before been shown in Honolulu, will be an added attraction and will be shown several times during the evening without further charge to the holders of the tickets to the chowder and dance. These are the pictures to secure which M. Bonvillain built his iron stand out in the sea and many of the members of the club will be recognized in them. These films are now being exhibited in London and Paris where they are creating a sensation.

Saturday night will be moonlight and the big dance lanai is being strengthened by carpenters to accommodate a large crowd. The chowder will be prepared for a thousand and served under the hau trees.
