

Outrigger Fete

Enjoyable

Tomorrow afternoon and evening, at the Outrigger Club, the members will entertain their friends and the public at a regatta, chowder, dance and entertainment.

At two o'clock in the afternoon the youngsters of the club will assemble on the grounds and launch their boards and canoes preparatory to three hours of contest in the waves.

At four o'clock Berger's band will enliven the proceedings, and at five the big chowder for a thousand guests will be laid, and during the feast Ernest Kaai's orchestra will arrive to remain for the rest of the evening.

Dancing will begin at eight o'clock and continue until midnight. Pathe Freres' motion pictures of surfing scenes will be thrown on the screen several times during the evening.

The club expects to net a thousand dollars for the contemplated improvements. Already several hundred dollars has been appropriated for the retaining wall, which is now being built.

The public is invited to patronize the entertainment tomorrow, and tickets may be secured from members or at the Public Service Association rooms.
