
PUBLIC SERVICE TO MANAGE CLUB AFFAIRS

At the director's meeting of the Outrigger Club yesterday afternoon it was decided to enter the club as a supporting member of the Public Service Association with J. P. Cooke and J. R. Galt as representative directors.

The association financed the Outrigger carnival of Saturday to success and will now act as financial agency of the club and downtown headquarters. The dues of the club members will be payable through the Public Service Association and delinquents will be notified that they must pay up at once or cease using the club premises.

At the signed request of more than a dozen members of the club a special meeting of the entire organization will be called for tomorrow afternoon at one o'clock at the Public Service rooms. Changes in the constitution demanding a quarterly financial report to the members and other important additions will be discussed and voted on.

The ladies were officially tendered a vote of thanks for their part in making a success of Saturday's entertainment and it was announced that there would be a tidy sum for further permanent improvements on the club grounds after the retaining wall now under construction is completed.
