

OUTRIGGER CLUB'S BIG PROGRAM

The Outrigger Club is making elaborate preparations for the carnival chowder and dance to be held on November 4.

Yesterday $600 was appropriated for permanent improvements to the club's premises, work on which will be started at once.

J. R. Galt was appointed a committee of one to confer with the ladies who have expressed a willingness to assist on the evening in question, and Dr. Victor S. Clark has been placed on the house committee and will endeavor to instill some life into that lethargic body.

Ted Melanphy, the club captain, will start work at once preparing for the regatta of the youngsters and the Clark cup surfing contests, both of which events will be held on the afternoon of November 4.

The program and order of the afternoon regatta will be as follows:

- 2 o'clock—Sailing race.
- 2:30 o'clock—Board race.
- 2:45 o'clock—Brothers canoe race.
- 3 o'clock—Canoe against surfboard race.
- 3:15 o'clock—One paddle canoe race.
- 3:30 o'clock—Three paddle race.
- 4:15 o'clock—Six paddle race.
- 4:30 o'clock—Girls' surfboard race.
- 4:45 o'clock—Surfboard contest for Clark cup.
- 5 o'clock—Small canoe surfing contest.
- 5:30 o'clock—Large canoe surfing contest.

5:45 o'clock—Jousting.

There will also be a girls' canoe race.

The officials will be as follows:

Judges: For races, D. Center, W. Soper, I. D. Canfield, D. Thayer, R. Reitow, K. Brown.

Judges: For Clark cup contests, W. Ferris, A. R. Gurrey Jr., K. L. Brown.
Starter: W. Soper.

Timekeepers: G. H. Tuttle, Mr. Tarleton, V. L. Stevenson.

The course will be a mile in length and all races will start from the beach off the Outrigger Club, and end there in order that all may watch the youngsters from start to finish, bucking the waves going out, breasting them and then riding in before them, for the Outrigger Club was organized to train the youth of Hawaii to be at home in the surf.

SPORTDRIFT

The first game of the intercollegiate football season was played on the Oahu College campus yesterday, the Oahu College seniors and sophomores defeating a team of freshmen and juniors by a score of 3 to 0.
