

SEATS FOR ONE HUNDRED AT OUTRIGGER DINNER

There will be seats set for one hundred guests at the Outrigger dinner tomorrow evening under the big hau tree lanai. James A. Wilder will be toastmaster and Mrs. Arnold will see that the pig is put in the imu at four in the afternoon. At six the pig and the sweet potatoes will be separated from the hot stones and the feed will begin. After dinner there will be a dance in the big lanai. This being the first dinner prepared entirely on the club grounds admission will be only by tickets secured at the public service rooms.
