

LIFE SAVING CLASSES

AT WAIKIKI BEACH

A class in life saving is to be inaugurated at Waikiki Beach, under the supervision and instruction of L. Fullard-Leo. The object of these classes will be to promote instruction in life saving and resuscitation of the apparently drowned; also to encourage floating,

They may be alive, in one of the orphanages in France, in some refugee camp in Holland, but no enquiries have brought answers from any source.

diving and other swimming arts which would be of assistance to a person endeavoring to save life.

The work is sanctioned by the Outrigger Club. Before anyone is allowed to become a member of the class they will be required to pass a physical examination.

Mr. Fullard-Leo and his wife are members of the Royal Life Saving Society, and he was the first to demonstrate the work of that organization in Australia, New Zealand and Africa.