

---

Charles E. Hooper of Hawaii, who is in Honolulu on business, has built a real Hawaiian outrigger canoe, constructed from koa wood, and expects to sell it to a mainland firm. Canoe building has not been encouraged in recent years and Hooper believes that he will readily find a sale for all outriggers constructed from koa.