

SOLDIER INJURED WHILE SWIMMING AT OUTRIGGER

Numb and helpless Pvt. A. A. Hilderbrand of the 8th Company, 1st Infantry, must have drowned Saturday near the Outrigger diving platform had not been rescued and brought ashore by W. S. Beach of the Advertiser. Hilderbrand dove into shallow water, stuck his head on the bottom and came up, partially paralyzed, calling for help. Today he is recovering at the Fort Shafter department hospital.
