

OIL SWIMMING STARS BLAZE BRIGHT AT MEET

NOTE The tense look on the faces of the crowd of swimming enthusiasts at the close of the fifty yard dash in the upper left hand picture (1); the look of "I'll do or bust" on the face of the diver (2); the grin on the countenance of Perry McGillyver (3); one of the stars of the meet, Clarence Lane (4); and John Kelli (5), the winner and second in the fifty yard race, look as though they had a tussle, but Lady Langer (6), who won the 880 yard race appears to have been ready for another contest. The diver (7) looks more like a bird than a man, and Allen Allen (8) the Coast crack had mark in the races as entered here. The snap shot at the bottom shows that the crowds that watched the races and contests were not the least interesting part of the big show.
