

Young Mermaids Who Swim Tomorrow

That Hawaii will have some great feminine swimmers in the future is the belief of Miss Ruth Stacker, swimming instructor at Palama. She has trained a number of mermaids for the meet tomorrow and 10 of them will compete in the special race for girls under 15 years of age. The upper picture shows the group of young girls coached by Miss Stacker. They are, left to right—Rebecca Haakeo, Agnes Auld, Rose Robero, Thelma Kenn, Edith Kenn, Elsie Auld, Cecilia Winchester, Lydia Kane, Bella Silva and Mertie Ludington. The lower group shows three of the swimmers who will meet Miss Dorothy Burns in the ladies' race tomorrow afternoon. They are, from left to right—Rose Soares, Josephine Hopkins and Cecilia Canario. Miss Canario is entered from Hilo.
