

J. A. BEAVEN CANDIDATE FOR SUPERVISOR

J. Ashman Beaven, manager of the American-Hawaiian Paper Company, will file his name shortly as a candidate for supervisor on the Republican ticket. He is a resident of the fourth precinct, fourth district; is secretary of the Outrigger club, having served the club for five years, and has been otherwise active in public movements. He is a member of the Chamber of Commerce and of the Rotary Club. He has lived here for six years. Prior to coming to Honolulu he was chairman of the board of selectmen of Milford, Conn., serving two terms; was president of the Milford board of trade and vice-president of the state board of trade. He has practised as an attorney and is an ex-newspaperman. Already he has a large number of representative businessmen signing his nomination papers.
