
WILL REFUND DUES

TO MEMBERS CALLED

Members of the Outrigger canoe club who may be ordered to the Mainland with army, navy or national guard will receive a rebate in dues paid the club. It is the custom of the club to receive dues in advance for the year prior to July 1. The directors have determined to return pro rata dues paid by those ordered away charging only for the portion of the year which such members spend here.

Printed notices of the action determined upon will be sent to all members of the club.
