

---

THREE PAINTINGS AT ART EXHIBIT SOLD

---

A plaster cast of the proposed fountain to be erected at the Outrigger club in memory of Jack London today was to replace the wax model at the art exhibit in the Pan-Pacific building. At a later date the fountain will be finished in marble and will then be ready for erection and dedication.

The art exhibit, although small, continues to attract Honoluluans. Three of Twigg Smith's smaller paintings have already been purchased by art lovers. A. Falke has secured the canvas depicting Mauna Loa at dusk, while "In the Duck Ponds" and "Off Kahalua" have been sold to A. Arbenz.

---